

Jefferson Street Sound Museum

SHORT DESCRIPTION:

Provide curated tours of the Jefferson Street Sound Museum to educate attendees of the music and entertainment legacies of historic Jefferson Street 1940-1970's.

LONG DESCRIPTION

To provide tours to bridge the legacy with today's global marketplace through artifacts, archives memorabilia and educational programs by supporting the research, preservation, and education of the history of Historic Jefferson Street. Curators Lorenzo

Washington, Founder, Karen Coffee, Vice President. $40,000.00

The Museum will provide a creative space to promote gifts and talents and artistic abilities by giving space in a historic, learning environment for artifacts, historic documents archive memorabilia to be available for public view. Individuals will be given the opportunity to develop skills that will develop maturity, build -self-esteem, and manage stress and self- sufficiency. Music education programs for adults and youth.

The Museum will provide networking and mentoring opportunities. Linking individuals (YOUTH and ADULTS) together by giving them the venue to express and advance in their talent/gift with others that are on the same career or desired life plan they are on the pathway to achieve. $20,000.00

The Museum will maintain collect, store and safely archive, capture stories, relevant artifacts, capture stories, ensure authenticity of products. This will help to reignite the music from back in the 1940-1970 period. $10,000.00

The Museum will market the Jefferson Street Sound Museum through innovative strategies, that drive and elevate brand awareness, amplify social media presence and supercharge digital marketing efforts. The Museum will foster community connections and increase visibility among potential donors.

$10,000