✓ Checklist

- Mandatory Referral Application
- Filing Fee $200 (All application fees are non-refundable)
Cash or check. If check, make payable to "Metropolitan Government". Credit cards not accepted.
- Property Map
Highlight with marker location of street or alley to be renamed.
- Property Owner Signatures
Signatures of all property owners abutting street (or section) to be renamed, agreeing to proposed new street name. (Try and get as many as you can. The more the better otherwise street's renaming could be delayed by people being confused or objecting to renaming).
- Biography
If the street is to be renamed after an individual, a biography of that individual must be submitted with this application. Streets cannot be renamed after living persons. Failure to provide this information will deem your application incomplete and postpone your application's consideration by the Metropolitan Planning Commission.

Coliseum Way

The Fairgrounds Nashville's Coliseum was built in 1925 and burned down in 1970. It was a premier Nashville entertainment venue that hosted the circus, rodeos, telethons, consumer shows, sporting events, and concerts including Frankie Avalon, Jerry Lee Lewis, Hank Williams, Jr., and Janis Joplin (Tennessean).
