Metropolitan Board of Parks and Recreation
511 Oman Street
Nashville, TN 37203

Dear Metro Parks Board Members,

Friends of Warner Parks (FOWP) requests approval from the Metropolitan Board of Parks and Recreation to accept an in-kind grant not to exceed $5,000 to fund the purchase and installation of a Metropolitan Historical Commission (MHC) historical marker on the grounds of the 1811 House in Percy Warner Park. The 1811 House is the oldest structure in the Warner Parks and was a contributing factor in the listing of the Warner Park Historic District in the National Register of Historic Places in 1984.

The MHC reviewed and approved the in-kind grant and wording to be used on the marker. This text is provided as an attachment to this letter.

The MHC works with N-DOT (formerly Public Works) to provide installation of the marker.

This request requires no match or other obligation from Metro Parks. No money will be sent to Metro Parks. All invoices will be paid for directly by Friends of Warner Parks. We are in communication with Metro Parks staff and will continue to work with them on the details of plans, materials, and schedule as the project moves forward.

FOWP appreciates the opportunity to once again partner with the Metro Parks Board for the improvement of the Warner Parks. Should there be any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jenny Hannon
President
Friends of Warner Parks

1811 House

Sponsored by: Friends of Warner Park

Built c. 1811, the Hodge House is the oldest structure in Warner Parks. In 1793 the North Carolina Assembly sold James Robertson a land grant for ten pounds. James Hodge purchased a portion of the tract in 1797. Later, his brother George built this white ash log house facing the Old Trail, now Chickering Road. According to an 1833 will, the Hodge-Northern family enslaved at least 14 people here. The City of Nashville bought the house and surrounding 49 acres from the family in the c. 1927. The family cemetery remains on a nearby hill.

This excellent example of a local two-story log farmhouse contributed to the listing of the Warner Park Historic District in the National Register of Historic Places in 1984. The structure had fallen into disrepair when Metro Parks funded a reconstruction in 2008 with support from Friends of Warner Parks. Carefully dismantled, the original logs and other materials were numbered, preserved and reused. The historic house and grounds are now available for reservation by the public.

GIRL SCOUTS OF MIDDLE TENNESSEE

In 1917, five years after Girl Scouts was founded in Savannah, Ga., the first troops were formed in Nashville. By 1927 there were enough troops and community support to join the national organization as the Nashville Girl Scout Council. The first headquarters was built in 1964 at 830 Kirkwood Ave. and moved to Granny White Pike in 1991. Now called Girl Scouts of Middle Tenn., they still strive to build girls of courage, confidence and character who make the world a better place.
