Dear Ms. Cebberos:

The Parks Board, at its meeting held Tuesday, March 7, 2023, accepted an in-kind grant from Hoop Bus Inc. in collaboration with Vanderbilt University valued at approximately $60,000 to renovate and restore the Watkins Park basketball court. The renovations will include newly renovated asphalt, hoops, nets and mural artwork by local artists and students.

Please note there is no required match or other obligation by Parks associated with this grant.

If further information is needed regarding the donation process, please contact Mr. Alan Enzo of my staff; he may be reached at 615 862-8400. On behalf of Metro Parks, thank you for this generous contribution.

Sincerely,

Monique Horton Odom, Director
and Secretary to the Board

Watkins Park Court Refurbishment Proposal

In collaboration with Vanderbilt University

To Whom It May Concern:

HoopBus requests being included on the Agenda for the Metropolitan Board of Parks and Recreation February Meeting.

HoopBus Chicago is proud to be partnering with Vanderbilt University to continue building community in Nashville, TN through basketball.

HoopBus with the support of Vanderbilt Athletics and Vanderbilt Government and Community Relations propose making an impact in the community with Metro Parks at Watkins Park, the first public park in Nashville.

HoopBus is partnering with Vanderbilt University to renovate and restore Nashville's historic Watkins Park basketball court. This project intends to bridge the community through the love of basketball and is expected to be delivered by Spring '23.

The Watkins Basketball Court renovation idea expanded from Vanderbilt University's overall wellness, safety, and inclusion campaign for the 2022-2023 year. This project strives to support wellness through basketball, provide a safe & dependable surface for community members to utilize, as well as to deliver an environment for citizens in the North Nashville community which preserves the history of the area. Watkins Park will be the premier outdoor basketball park in Nashville. All aspects of design and construction will conform to the standards of Metro Parks.

Watkins Park, located 1.8 miles from Vanderbilt campus, is adjacent to MLK High School, formerly Pearl High, which produced Vanderbilt alum, Perry Wallace, who was the first African American scholarship athlete in the Southeastern Conference. HoopBus has an opportunity to bond the North Nashville community and Vanderbilt University community by which we can foster sustainable ways to support and interact with one another.

HoopBus requests Metro Parks accept an in-kind donation with an approximate value of $60,000.

A brief description of the project has been submitted in the form of a powerpoint and is included with this request. HoopBus acknowledges that the mural is a temporary installation and there is no obligation by Metro Parks to maintain it in perpetuity.

All work will require final administrative approval from Metro Parks.

HoopBus acknowledges that the donation requires no match or other obligation from Metro Parks.

Thank you for your consideration.

Vanderbilt University is proud to be partnering with HoopBus™ to continue our efforts building community bonds in Nashville, TN through basketball.

Vanderbilt University would like to express its full support for HoopBus™ in-kind donation request to renovate the Watkins Park Basketball Court.

Vanderbilt's departments of Athletics and Government and Community Relations support HoopBus™ proposal with Metro Parks at Watkins Park, which was the first public park in Nashville.

Vanderbilt University is an engaged partner with HoopBus™ in the planning and execution of this project. Watkins Park, located 1.8 miles from Vanderbilt campus, is adjacent to Martin Luther King High School, formerly Pearl High School, which produced Vanderbilt alum, Perry Wallace. Mr. Wallace was the first African American scholarship athlete in the Southeastern Conference. The HoopBus™ project will bond the North Nashville community and Vanderbilt University community by which we can foster sustainable ways to support and interact with one another.

In conclusion, Vanderbilt University supports the efforts of HoopBus™ and makes a recommendation on their behalf to Metro Parks Nashville to be approved for this project.

Thank you for your consideration.
