

Clinical Affiliation Agreement Between
Vanderbilt University Medical Center
And
The Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County acting by and through the Davidson County Drug Court

This Clinical Affiliation Agreement ("Agreement") is entered into by and between Vanderbilt University Medical Center, a Tennessee not for-profit corporation (hereinafter referred to as "Vanderbilt") and The Metropolitan Government of Nashville And Davidson County, acting by and through the Davidson County Drug Court located in Nashville, Tennessee (hereinafter referred to as "Drug Court").

Pursuant to this Agreement, the Drug Court and Vanderbilt agree to cooperate in the implementation of a program of clinical instruction and training at the Drug Court for Allied Health Students of Vanderbilt University Medical Center's Dietetic Program (hereinafter referred to as "Allied Health").

I. Term and Termination

- A. This Agreement shall become effective upon approval of the Metropolitan Council and filing with the Metropolitan Clerk and shall continue for a period of five (5) years unless terminated earlier as provided in this Agreement.
- B. This Agreement may be terminated by either party at any time upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice by certified mail, return receipt requested to the other party, (the address of each party is provided in Section VI, Notices), provided that any student from the School of Nursing who is currently participating in a clinical training program at Drug Court when notice of termination is given will be permitted to complete his or her program at Drug Court as previously scheduled. This Agreement shall be terminated immediately if either party's certification or license to operate is repealed -or suspended.
- C. This Agreement cannot be amended, modified, supplemented, or rescinded except in writing signed by the parties hereto.

II. Responsibilities of Vanderbilt University Medical Center

- A. Assume responsibility, in coordination with Drug Court, for the assignment of students and the planning of the Program. No student shall be assigned to Drug Court without the prior consent of Allied Health.
- B. Inform students to maintain the confidentiality of all information which relates to or identifies a particular patient, including but not limited to the name, address, medical treatment or condition, financial status, or any other personal information which is deemed to be confidential in accordance with applicable state and federal law and standards of professional ethics. •

- C. Provide assurance that health insurance and professional liability insurance is in effect for students during the term of their assignment at Drug Court.
- D. Ensure that students have received the following immunizations:
 - 1. PPD tuberculin skin test or chest x,-ray within one year of clinical experience.
 - 2. Positive serology of immunity to Rubella and Rubeola or MMR• vaccination.
 - 3. Hepatitis B vaccinations or waiver indicating refusal.
 - 4. Positive serology of immunity to varicella or immunization.
 - 5. Annual flu vaccine to cover designated flu s-eason.
- E. Provide training and education programs to all students on the OSHA/Blood Borne Pathogens and HIPAA regulations prior to their clinical rotation. •

III. Responsibilities of Drug Court

- A. To accept students for clinical experiences in the areas for which placement has been mutually reviewed, planned, and arranged. These clinical experiences are to be negotiated between the parties on a semester-to-semester basis.
- B. Retain full responsibility for patient care services provided by Drug Court, and for maintaining a sufficient level of staff support to carry out all service functions and patient care services. In no event shall students be used by Drug Court to perform services in lieu of staff.
- C. Provide orientation to students assigned to Drug Court for educational experiences.
- D. Provide immediate first aid for injuries or illnesses, such as needle sticks, that occur at Drug Court. The cost of such immediate first aid will be the responsibility of the student.
- E. Designate a staff member to serve as the liaison between Drug Court and Allied Health.

- F. Supervision of student(s) will be provided by a designated preceptor to be agreed upon by Allied Health and the Drug Court. The preceptor may be an employee of Drug Court or a contracted provider for services at Drug Court.
- G. Provide a reasonable amount of storage space for apparel and personal effects of participating students and reasonable conference room space at Drug Court for use in clinical conference.

IV. Mutual Responsibilities

- A. Confer on problems related to the educational experiences to be provided under this Agreement if any problems arise.
- B. Students are not considered employees of Allied Health or of Drug Court; and therefore, students shall not be entitled to monetary compensation or to employee benefits, including workers' compensation benefits, of the Metropolitan Government or Vanderbilt.
- C. Either party may request withdrawal of a student from an assignment. Such withdrawal shall be upon the terms and conditions agreed to by both parties after consultation between the parties. Drug Court may immediately remove any student who poses a threat, disruption, or danger to the Drug Court program.
- D. The faculty of Allied Health and Drug Court will evaluate the student's performance of the clinical experience in mutual consultation.
- E. Allied Health shall procure or cause the student to procure professional liability insurance in a minimum amount of $1,000,000/$3,000,000 in coverage for the student. Proof of this insurance coverage is to be provided upon request.
- F. Each party agrees to notify the other party as soon as possible in writing of any incident, occurrence, or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement which could result in a liability or claim of liability to the other party. Further, the notified party will have the right to investigate said incident or occurrence and the notifying party will cooperate fully in this investigation.
- G. Each party agrees not to use the other's name or programs in any advertising, promotional material, press release, publication, public announcement, or through other media, written or oral, without the prior written consent of the other party.

- H. Neither party shall assign, subcontract, or transfer any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement to a third party without the prior written consent of the other party.
- I. Each party shall be considered to be an independent party and shall not be construed to be an agent or representative of the other party, and therefore, has no liability for the acts or omissions of the other party.
- J. The parties shall perform under this Agreement in compliance with all applicable federal and state laws, including without limitation, the provisions of Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967 and 1975 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and in compliance with applicable standards of the Joint Commission.

V. HIPAA Requirements

The parties acknowledge that performance under this Agreement by each party must comply with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996, as codified at 42 U.S.C. § 1320d ("HIPAA"), the Health Information Technology Act of 2009, as codified at 42 U.S.C.A. prec. § 17901 ("HITECH Act"), and any current and future regulations promulgated under HIPAA or the HITECH Act (HIPAA, HITECH Act and any current and future regulations promulgated under either are referred to as the "Regulations"). Each party warrants that it is familiar with the requirements of the Regulations, and will comply with all the Regulations in connection with their respective performance under this Agreement. The parties will each cooperate with the respective privacy officials and other compliance officers of the other party as necessary for both parties to comply with the Regulations and will sign any documents that are reasonably necessary to maintain compliance with the Regulations. The parties agree that the student shall be considered a member of the Drug Court's workforce, as that term is defined at 45 C.F.R. § 160.103; when participating in a clinical experience under this Agreement at the Drug Court.
