Analysis

This resolution appropriates $96,000 from the Community Safety Fund for grants to two non-profit organizations. The Mayor's Office has recommended a total of $96,000 of the funds appropriated for community safety grants in the Budget Ordinance (Substitute Ordinance No. BL2022-1248), be distributed to the specific nonprofit organizations named below to be used for services pertaining to South Nashville Community Safety programs:

- $48,000 to Friends of Mill Ridge Park to provide services pertaining to South Nashville Community Safety Programs
- $48,000 to Somali Community of Middle Tennessee to provide services pertaining to South Nashville Community Safety programs

The resolution also approves grant agreements with each of these organizations detailing the terms and conditions under which the grant funds are to be spent.
