

RS20 zoning district; and

WHEREAS, in January of 2021, the owners filed for an Item A appeal, challenging the Zoning Administrator's decision to halt the building permit; and

WHEREAS, on March 4, 2021, the Board of Zoning Appeals denied the owners' Item A Appeal and upheld the Zoning Administrator's decision, as the Zoning Administrator made the appropriate decision to halt the permit and granting the appeal would result in a "variance for use"; and

WHEREAS, per Section 17.40.340.A of the Metro Code, the Board of Zoning Appeals cannot grant variances to Section 17.08.030 of the Metro Code, which regulates land uses and the zoning districts they are allowed in; and

WHEREAS, if this zoning change is not granted, the only remedy to make the pool-house/guesthouse compliant would be to construct a connection between it and the main house, which would result in the removal of a healthy, 144 inch (12 ft.) circumference heritage oak tree; and

WHEREAS, it is the intent of the owners of 4020 Estes Rd to utilize this proposed DADU for friends and family and not rent it out; and

WHEREAS, the owners have voluntarily agreed to place a deed restriction on the property prohibiting the DADU from being rented, either as a short term rental or a long term rental; and

WHEREAS, this SP will not permit either owner-occupied or not owner occupied short term rental uses on the property.
