A resolution recognizing April 26, 2024, as Lesbian Day of Visibility in Nashville and Davidson County.

WHEREAS, Lesbian Day of Visibility is an annual observance on April 26 that celebrates lesbians and their contributions to society; and

WHEREAS, Lesbian Day of Visibility was established in 1990 in an effort to gain awareness of lesbian identities and sociopolitical capital, advocate for important issues, and celebrate the community at large; and

WHEREAS, Lesbian Day of Visibility provides a chance to commemorate the work and achievements of LGBTQIA women and non-binary people in Nashville and recognize the boldness needed to live openly; and

WHEREAS, Nashvillians have worked to increasingly create a culture of acceptance and inclusion, engage in public service, and fight to preserve and expand the rights of LGBTQIA women and non-binary people in the community as a whole; and

WHEREAS, Lesbian Day of Visibility allows Nashville and Davidson County to recognize lesbian leaders and elected officials in Nashville and Davidson County, including former Council Member Nancy VanReece, Council Member Emily Benedict, Council Member Olivia Hill, General Sessions Court Judge Rachel Bell, and Criminal Court Judge Jennifer Smith; and

WHEREAS, the Metropolitan Council wishes to salute the community's strength, commitment, and remarkable work to secure equal rights for all; and

WHEREAS, the Metropolitan Council endeavors to make Nashville a city that is welcoming and inclusive of everyone, including LGBTQIA women and non-binary people.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE METROPOLITAN GOVERNMENT OF

NASHVILLE AND DAVIDSON COUNTY:

Section 1. The Metropolitan Council hereby goes on record as recognizing April 26, 2024, as Lesbian Day of Visibility.

Section 2. This resolution shall take effect from and after its adoption, the welfare of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County requiring it.
