Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect from and after its final passage, the welfare of The Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County requiring it.

Analysis

This ordinance abandons easement rights located at 410 42nd Avenue North and 410 B 42nd Avenue North, formerly a portion of Alabama Avenue, except for those retained by Nashville Electric Service. Existing utility easement rights had originally been retained by Council Bill O68-652. The Metropolitan Government has determined that utility easement, except for those retained by Nashville Electric Service, are no longer needed. The abandonment has been requested by Ragan Smith on behalf of the owner.

This has been approved by the Planning Commission. Future amendments to this legislation may be approved by resolution.

Fiscal Note: This ordinance has no cost to Metro. Abandoned easements have no market value according to the Department of Water Services.
