

community investment back to Metro schools through business partnerships and volunteer service, free product to educators, and grants to and for MNPS; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Adams has decades of experience providing financial and administrative services to a variety of nonprofit organizations. Before joining PENCIL, she served as Executive Director of Nashville Ballet where she led a capital campaign and physical expansion project to allow School of Nashville Ballet to double in size; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Adams was recently named as one of Nashville's Most Admired Nonprofit CEOs by the Nashville Business Journal, who, in 2017 acknowledged her as a Women of Influence. She holds a bachelor's degree in accounting from Belmont University's Honors Program where she has also served as an adjunct faculty member; and

WHEREAS, she is an active member of The Rotary Club of Nashville where she currently serves on the board and regularly volunteers with Second Harvest Food Bank and the Arts and Business Council. Ms. Adams is now in her 37th year of dance studies and continues to take a variety of dance classes; and

WHEREAS, Ms. Adams is also a proud MNPS parent and her daughter will graduate with the MNPS Class of 2024; and

WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that the Metropolitan Council recognize the contributions of Ms. Adams to public education in Nashville and Davidson County and wishes her well as she departs PENCIL at the end of the of the school year.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE METROPOLITAN GOVERNMENT OF NASHVILLE AND DAVIDSON COUNTY:

Section 1. That the Metropolitan County Council hereby goes on record as honoring Angie Adams for her service as President and CEO of PENCIL and wish her continued success in her future endeavors.

Section 2. This Resolution shall take effect from and after its adoption, the welfare of The Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County requiring it.