Analysis

This resolution appropriates $1,740,000 from the Office of Family Safety to various nonprofit organizations selected to receive American Rescue Plan Act (ARP) funds. Resolution No. RS2021-1152 previously appropriated $3,148,980 in ARP funds for the support of various nonprofit organizations to address increased demand for therapy and services for victims of abuse, human trafficking and interpersonal violence. The Office of Family Safety accepted applications from nonprofit organizations and recommended the distribution of funds to these organizations. The Mayor has accepted these recommendations.

Funds would be distributed as follows:

- $500,000 to Family & Children's Services for the provision of therapeutic services for adults and children impacted by interpersonal violence;
- $450,000 to Nashville Children's Alliance for the provision of therapeutic services for adults and children impacted by interpersonal violence;
- $400,000 to Sexual Assault Center for the provision of therapeutic services for adults and children impacted by interpersonal violence;
- $120,000 to The Mary Parrish Center for the provision of therapeutic services for adults and children impacted by interpersonal violence;
- $270,000 to AGAPE for the provision of therapeutic services for adults and children impacted by interpersonal violence and to assist petitioners with Orders of Protection at the Family Safety Center.
