WHEREAS, Tenn. Code Ann., § 67-1-404(b)(1)(D) authorizes the legislative body of the Metropolitan Government to fix the number of days the MBOE shall sit in regular session; and,

WHEREAS, the Metropolitan Council can act to call the MBOE into special session, and the public welfare requires that the MBOE so meet in both regular session and special session.

Section 2. The Metropolitan Council hereby calls the MBOE into special session beginning June 20, 2023 for the purposes of hearing appeals timely filed for tax year 2023, completing the equalization, carrying out its duties, and overseeing its administration; said special session not to continue beyond May 31, 2024. The MBOE shall meet in special session at the discretion of its Chair, or the Vice Chair, if the Chair cannot act.

Analysis

This is a routine, annual resolution to call the Metropolitan Board of Equalization (“MBOE”) into regular session from June 1, 2023, until June 17, 2023. It would also call the MBOE into special session convening June 20, 2023, to complete any unfinished business regarding appeals on pro-rated assessments. The special session is not to extend beyond May 31, 2024.

The MBOE always meets during the month of June to hear appeals of assessments on real property. Historically, the MBOE has been required to have special sessions to conclude its work due to the large number of appeals. State law authorizes county legislative bodies to fix the number of days the Board of Equalization is to sit in regular session and to call the board into special session to complete any unfinished business. (T.C.A. § 67-1-404).
