Analysis

On December 2, 2020, a Nashville Fire Department employee, while responding to a call, passed the intended location, put the vehicle in reverse, and backed into Demetria Childress's vehicle causing damage to the vehicle and personal injuries. Ms. Childress sought treatment for headaches, as well as neck, back, and shoulder pain incurring medical bills totaling $3,935.

The Department of Law recommends settling the claim for the amount of the medical bills plus $7,065 for pain and suffering, for a total settlement award of $11,000 to be paid out of the self-insured liability fund. The property damage claim in the amount of $3,926 has already been paid.

The Metro employee who caused the accident received disciplinary action consisting of a three day suspension.

Fiscal Note: This $11,000 settlement, along with the settlement per Resolution No. RS2021-847, would be the 27th and 28th payments from the Self-Insured Liability Fund in FY21 for a cumulative total of $1,638,214. The fund balance would be $1,262,759 after these payments.
