Analysis

On June 19, 2020, Fred Ngongi was injured while staying at the Fairgrounds temporary COVID-19 housing

when a privacy curtain partition fell and struck him in the head. Mr. Ngoni was initially diagnosed with a concussion after being transported to St. Thomas Midtown. He sought further treatment at Nashville General Hospital complaining of headaches, numbness, and blurred vision, and was prescribed physical therapy. Mr. Ngongi's medical bills total $10,877.95.

The Department of Law recommends settling this claim for the amount of the medical bills plus $8,122.05 for pain and suffering since the curtain stands were not appropriately anchored to the floor at the time.

Fiscal Note: This $19,000.00 settlement would be the 32nd payment from the Self-Insured Liability Fund in FY21 for a cumulative total of $1,766,061.00. The fund balance would be $1,150,606 after these payments.
