Analysis

This routine contract provides for the payment of emergency transportation services by the Nashville Fire Department for patients at the Middle Tennessee Mental Health Institute (MTMHI). Under the contract, the state pays for ambulance services using the Medicare Part B Fee Schedule or, if a service is not covered by this schedule, then at the lowest negotiated rate not to exceed $1,200 per trip for emergency ambulance services and $624 per trip for non-emergency transportation. This agreement is simply to enable the state to be able to continue paying Metro for the services provided.
