Analysis

This resolution approves the renewals of an intergovernmental agreement between the Metropolitan Nashville Police Department (MNPd) and the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers for extra-duty police officers to patrol the recreation areas at J. Percy Priest and Old Hickory Lakes. All officers would be assigned exclusively through the Metro Police Secondary Employment Unit.

The base year for this contract is April 1, 2022 through September 30, 2022, with the option for one additional year.

State law allows the Metropolitan Government to enter into intergovernmental agreements with other governmental entities with approval of the Council by resolution.

Fiscal Note: MNPd will provide extra-duty police services for holiday and routine patrol at J. Percy Priest Lake and Old Hickory Lakes. U.S. Army Corps of Engineers will pay MNPd a total of $118,788.40 for these services. The cost for additional option year would be a total of $119,114.
