Analysis

The resolution approves an agreement between the Emergency Medical Services Division of the Nashville Fire Department (“NFD”) and Volunteer State Community College (“Vol State”). The agreement would provide clinical experiences for students enrolled in Vol State’s Emergency Medical Services programs.

According to the agreement, NFD will provide clinical instruction and experiences to students, and students will not be considered employees of the Metropolitan Government. Vol State requires written evidence that individual students have professional liability insurance.

The term of the agreement is for five years and begins upon the approval of the parties and the Metropolitan Council and upon filing with the Metropolitan Clerk.

Fiscal Note: There is no cost to Metro for participating in this program.
