

WHEREAS, Bill was able to combine his experience as a pilot and his love of public service as a member of Metropolitan Nashville Airport Authority, where he served from 2016 until earlier this year; and

WHEREAS, in 2018, Bill and Jimmy founded FW Publishing, which purchased publications including the Nashville Scene, for which Bill frequently wrote commentary; and

WHEREAS, Bill served the Nashville community in many ways, including as a member of the boards of the Nashville Davidson County Mental Health and Veterans Assistance Foundation, the Tennessee State University, the Nashville Area YMCA, the Nashville Public Television Council, and the Nashville State Community College Foundation; and

WHEREAS, in 2016, Bill was appointed by President Barack Obama to the Kennedy Center Advisory Committee on the Arts and, in 2022, he was appointed by President Joe Biden to the J. William Fulbright Scholarship Awards board; and

WHEREAS, Bill enjoyed flying, hunting, and racing at the Fairgrounds Speedway; and

WHEREAS, Bill acted selflessly and almost always anonymously to help individuals and groups in need; and

WHEREAS, Bill set an example for our community to fight for each other and our values and to provide for each other to our greatest abilities; and

WHEREAS, Bill is survived by his wife, Babs, sons Bob, Harvey, and Mike, and six grandchildren; and

WHEREAS, the Metropolitan Council joins with the Nashville community in mourning the loss of Bill Freeman.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE METROPOLITAN GOVERNMENT OF NASHVILLE AND DAVIDSON COUNTY:

Section 1. The Metropolitan County Council hereby goes on record as honoring the life of Bill Freeman and recognizing him for his service to Nashville and Davidson County. He leaves behind an indelible legacy of wisdom, kindness, and commitment to helping others.

Section 2. This Resolution shall take effect from and after its adoption, the welfare of the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County requiring it.