Analysis

This resolution approves a grant from the Community Foundation of Middle Tennessee to the Metropolitan Action Commission in an amount not to exceed $30,000 with no local cash match required. This grant will be used to provide a stipend for summer 2022 interns in the POWER Youth's High School Interns Program.

The High School Interns Program is designed to empower Nashville's 16 through 18-year-olds while providing real chances for young people to learn work-related skills that will stimulate the next generation of growth in our economy - benefiting our youth, our businesses, and our city.
