Analysis

This resolution accepts a grant from the Tennessee Historical Commission to the Metropolitan Historical Commission to provide a comprehensive, countywide cemetery preservation plan for Davidson County. The grant award is an amount not to exceed $38,895 with a required local cash match of $25,930.

This grant will fund Phase II of a comprehensive, countywide cemetery preservation plan for Davidson County. Phase I began in 2021 with funding from a Tennessee Historical Commission grant approved by Resolution No. RS2021-1118. The Council approved the application for this grant on February 1, 2022, pursuant to Resolution No. RS2022-1363. Davidson County is home to over 500 rural cemeteries.
