Analysis

On November 14, 2019, Metropolitan Nashville Police Department ("MNPDP") officers had been conducting surveillance on a wanted murder suspect at a hotel. MNPDP officers observed a suspicious vehicle at the hotel and decided to follow the vehicle. The vehicle was exceeding the speed limit and the officers initiated a traffic stop. However, the vehicle sped away. The MNPDP officers believed they located the vehicle, which eventually stopped at R&B Liquors in Nolensville.

Mr. Ralph Ward exited the vehicle and entered R&B Liquors. The officers followed Mr. Ward into the store and arrested him, believing that the vehicle Mr. Ward exited was the same vehicle that had fled from a lawful traffic stop and that a wanted murder suspect could have been in the vehicle. Mr. Ward complied with the arrest and denied that he had fled from the traffic stop, offering to show officers the GPS on his phone or his GPS device. Mr. Ward was charged with felony evading arrest. The charge was ultimately dismissed and his arrest was expunged.

Mr. Ward filed a lawsuit alleging a 14 U.S.C. § 1983 claim against the arresting MNPDP officers for false arrest, excessive force, and malicious prosecution under the Fourth Amendment. He also included a malicious prosecution claim against the Metropolitan Government.

Mr. Ward claims $4,338.85 in pecuniary damages, including bond, attorneys fees, missed work days, and travel to court, along with an undisclosed amount of damages for emotional distress. He also has a claim for punitive damages. If Mr. Ward were to prevail at trial on the Section 1983 claim, he would also be entitled to attorney's fees.

The Council approved Resolution No. RS2022-1794 on October 4, 2022, which authorized the Department of Law to make an offer of judgment for $50,000 plus fees and costs. As of October 4, 2022, the fees and costs were $107,000. After the offer of judgment was made, Mr. Ward drastically reduced his demand and Metro and Mr. Ward participated in a mediation.

To eliminate the risk of continued litigation and the associated rising expenses, the Department of Law recommends settlement of Mr. Ward's claim for $236,000.

Fiscal Note: This settlement would be paid from the Judgment and Losses Fund in the amount of $236,000. This settlement would be the 3rd payment from the Judgment and Losses Fund in FY23 for a cumulative total of $665,339. The fund balance would be $16,750,985 after this payment.
