WHEREAS, Our Pride Encompasses Nashville (Nashville Pride) has been a strong advocate and supporter of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer (LGBTQ) communities throughout Middle Tennessee and is celebrating Nashville Pride in the city of Nashville; and

WHEREAS, the city of Nashville is honored to welcome members of the LGBTQ community and their allies to celebrate a very special and important event honoring the diversity, inclusion, and history of the pride and gay rights movement; and

WHEREAS, the Nashville Pride celebration and movement continues to grow and celebrates inclusion as a necessary ingredient to making Nashville and the United States truly diverse. WHEREAS, this year marks the 61st anniversary of the first passage of legislation decriminalizing same-sex relationships in the US which occurred in the State of Illinois in 1962. While Tennessee still has a sodomy statute in place, it was ruled unconstitutional by the Tennessee Court of Appeals in the Campbell v. Sundquist decision, brought by Nashville resident Penny Campbell; and

WHEREAS, this year also marks the 35th consecutive Pride event in Nashville. This year’s Nashville Pride Festival will be held June 24th & 25th, 2023 at Bicentennial Capitol Mall State Park; and

WHEREAS, this year marks the conclusion of the 2019-2023 Metro Council session during which the LGBTQ Caucus was established after a record of five out LGBTQ Council Members were elected or re-elected, bringing LGBTQ representation to 12.5% of the Metro Council body, and during which time the LGBTQ Caucus has endeavored to promote awareness of and advocacy for LGBTQ people in Davidson County and across Tennessee, to provide context to legislation to ensure the visibility, protection and advancement of the LGBTQ community in Davidson County, and to seek opportunities to collaborate with and support the Minority Caucus and the Women’s Caucus on legislation and events promoting equality and inclusion for all Nashvillians; and

WHEREAS, the LGBTQ Caucus looks forward to continuing to collaborate with community organizations and colleagues in future Metro Council class sessions and elected officials at all levels of government toward advancing equality for all Nashvillians and Tennesseans.
